Sree Narayana College, Alathur

Action Taken report of Feedback System 2021-22

Sree Narayana College Alathur places great emphasis on collecting and analyzing feedback from all stakeholders to ensure the continuous improvement of the institution. The institution believes that feedback is an essential tool for measuring the effectiveness of its programs and services and for identifying areas that require improvement.

The college uses an online feedback system to collect feedback from stakeholders, including students, teachers, parents, and alumni. The IQAC committee, Tutorial System, UG and PG monitoring committees, ALUMNI association, and PTA body monitor all activities and analyze feedback at regular intervals.

At the department level, feedback from students is collected to enhance the teaching and learning process. The institution takes the feedback seriously and identifies the difficulties that students face while pursuing their education. Corrective measures are taken to help students progress, and feedback is shared with teachers to improve the teaching process.

After analyzing the feedback, an action taken report is prepared to address the specific interventions necessary to improve the institution's performance. The report is shared with all stakeholders, including teachers, students, parents, and alumni, to keep them informed of the college's progress.

Sree Narayana College, Alathur also takes suggestions from parents and alumni for future development. The institution believes that alumni are a valuable source of feedback and insight into how to improve programs and services. The college also hosts an annual alumni meet every year in February to collect feedback on college facilities and programs, as well as job opportunities in various programs.

The feedback score is used as a key component for assuring the quality of the college. The institution believes that feedback is an essential tool for measuring the effectiveness of its programs and services and for identifying areas that require improvement. The college is committed to continuously improving its performance and ensuring the satisfaction of all stakeholders.

Sree Narayana College, Alathur's commitment to collecting and analyzing feedback from stakeholders is a testament to its dedication to continuous improvement. The college's efforts to improve its programs and services are essential to ensure that students receive the highest quality education, and that the institution remains at the forefront of higher education.
